

Hagley Primary School

Home School Agreement

Our Ethos

Hagley Primary School believes that the close relationship between home and school is a vital element in its success.

This document is an agreement that is intended to further strengthen the partnership between home and school. We ask that you read sign and return a copy. By signing this agreement you are supporting your child's education in the best possible way – by working with our school.

For our part we have made some commitments to the children and to you. This is a statement of intent. One of our aims is to work with parents by involving you in the life of the school and the education of your child.

Hagley Primary School will:

- Create a happy, secure, stimulating and supportive environment
- Recognise that each and every pupil is valued as an individual
- Listen and respond quickly to any concerns of pupils and parents
- Provide a broad and balanced curriculum with high academic standards that are set within a rich curriculum to develop the whole child
- Provide regular information about your child's progress and achievements
- Alert you to any difficulties should they arise
- Take responsibility for the whole child and nurture their emotional, creative, physical and spiritual growth

As parents we will support our children by:

- Encouraging them in their education
- Taking an interest in their school life
- Helping them get the most out of the opportunities offered
- Letting the school know of any problems that could affect their work or behaviour
- Encouraging them to follow the schools guidelines on behaviour
- Ensuring that they attend on time each day and wearing the correct uniform, and with the correct equipment
- Keep any absence to a minimum and within the school's guidelines on absence and illness
- Helping with their home learning activities and meeting with their teacher
- Being mindful of keeping all children safe. If you have a concern regarding another child, when in or around school, please speak to a member of staff rather than approaching a child yourself

As a student I will try to:

- Be thoughtful and kind to others
- Treat my school with care and pride
- Try my best
- Be a good listener at all times
- Make others feel welcome
- Remember the 3 rights of everyone at Hagley Primary School; to be safe, to learn and to respect others
- Take responsibility for my learning as I move through the school

All new pupils and their parents are encouraged to sign the Home-School Agreement.

Hagley Primary School is a caring school whose Teachers and Governors welcome partnership with parents in the education of their children.
